

Anthonia Ghalamkarizadeh, M.Jur. (Oxford)

Counsel
Hamburg

Biography

Anthonia Ghalamkarizadeh advises her clients, many of them owners of famous brands, on all aspects of trademark law and unfair competition. The integrated cross-border and online enforcement of her clients' IP rights is a special focus of her work. Anthonia's client base spans software and online services, consumer electronics and entertainment, as well as beauty care and automotive. She has extensive experience in global brand enforcement strategy and litigation and advises her clients on all steps of the way: From strategic advice on obtaining and protecting trademarks and other intellectual property rights to their enforcement against imitations, scams, misleading and false advertising and other forms of misuse.

Anthonia oversees the global trademark enforcement work for several of her clients, among them Mozilla and trivago. To that end she collaborates with colleagues in many jurisdictions on a daily basis.

Anthonia regularly publishes on current trademark, online and unfair competition topics, exploring the legal implications of current market realities such as ad-blocking and the effective protection against online scams. She is a member of the Marques "Class 46" team of trademark bloggers and writes for the firm's
