

Christopher Boness

Professional Staff Member (Majority)

U.S. Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

Chris grew up in McFarland, Wisconsin. He received a bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2012, majoring in Political Science. After working at the Wisconsin State Legislature post-graduation, Chris accepted a position at Targeted Victory, a digital advertising firm and moved to Washington, D.C. in 2014. At the beginning of the 114th Congress, he started on the U.S. Senate Homeland Security & Governmental Affairs Committee (HSGAC) for Senator Ron Johnson. He is currently a Professional Staff Member on the homeland security team and oversees law enforcement agencies within DHS such as the United States Secret Service, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, and the Federal Protective Service, as well as the Transportation Security Administration and other DHS management issues.