

David Ofosu-Dorte

Senior Partner – AB & David

David founded AB & David in Ghana in 1998 and has grown it to become a pan-Africa law firm with ability to advise in 23 Africa jurisdictions in Africa. The firm recently earned distinction as the First African law firm to be awarded the England Law Society Lexcel accreditation which is a mark of the highest standard in law practice. His extensive work on advising businesses in Africa led to a CNN interview with David on doing business in Africa.

He has a combined public and private sector experience spanning over twenty-five (25) years which cut across finance, infrastructure and advice to governments and PPPs. He was recognised in Nigeria for his insights on Africa business and between 2012 and 2014, he served on the National Competitiveness Council of Nigeria (NCCN) as a non-Nigerian member.
