

Suzanne Prosser

Global General Counsel, MicroEnsure

Suzanne Prosser is Global General Counsel and heads the Risk & Compliance team for MicroEnsure an insurance specialist focusing on Africa and Asia. With operations in numerous countries in Africa and Asia, MicroEnsure's vision is to radically transform insurance in emerging markets by delivering insurance solutions for the underserved.

By partnering with insurers, banks, MFI's and telecommunication providers, MicroEnsure is at the forefront of developing innovative insurance solutions in these regions.

Recent collaborations have resulted in recognition for MicroEnsure with an award for "Best Disruptive Product" at the EFMA and Accenture Innovation in Insurance Awards in June 2016, having won the Financial Times/IFC's 10-year anniversary "Excellence in Transformational Business Award" in 2015.

Suzanne joined MicroEnsure in 2015 having spent ten years with Lloyds Banking Group leading legal support on strategic regulatory issues and key commercial and outsourcing arrangements in Europe and Asia, focusing particularly on the insurance sector. Prior to that Suzanne has gained expertise through private practice and in-house roles including with the insurance team at CMS Cameron McKenna and as European Counsel for a US Technology provider.
