

KWANELE RADEBE ONYANGO – BIO

Kwanele Radebe Onyango is a qualified Attorney in South Africa and Solicitor in England and Wales. Having joined Standard Bank in 2010, Kwanele has extensive experience working across Africa on cross-border leveraged finance, acquisition finance, mining, trade and commodity finance, preference share funding for corporates in telecoms, FMCG, oil and gas, industry as well as funding state-owned entities and sovereigns.

From 2006-2010 Kwanele practised law in London at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and SJ Berwin LLP (now King & Wood Mallesons) respectively. As an associate in London, she had exposure to debt capital markets, project finance, mergers and acquisitions and management buy-outs in markets including Europe, Asia, Africa and the Americas. Prior to her international stint, Kwanele completed her articles in 2005 at Bowman Gilfillan Inc. in Johannesburg.

Kwanele is a guest lecturer at Wits Law School on the Banking Finance Certificate Program and is currently studying an Executive MBA through IE Business School.