

Nieros Oyegun

Nieros joined CDC Group in 2017 to lead The Africa List, CDC's unique investment in the leaders and businesses responsible for Africa's next decade of growth. She came to CDC with over 15 years of experience gained across infrastructure project finance, natural resources banking, and alternative asset management (EM debt and commodities).

Her previous roles were with Macquarie in Houston and Johannesburg, LADOL in Lagos, and New Holland Capital and Goldman Sachs in New York. Nieros graduated magna cum laude with a degree in Mathematics and Economics from Columbia University, and holds a Masters in Finance from London Business School, where she currently serves on the Dean's Alumni Council and the Masters in Finance Programme Board. She is also a Board Director at Bestseller Foundation, a private Nordic fund making sustainable impact investments in Africa and India.
