

Tokunboh Ishmael

Tokunboh Ishmael is a private equity investor with over 20 years' experience spanning investment banking, private equity investing, technology, and business development in Africa, Europe, and North America. She is the Managing Director and co-founder of Alitheia Capital (www.thealitheia.com), an investment management and advisory firm focused on channelling private equity investments into high growth businesses in Africa.

In 2015, she co-founded Alitheia IDF to scale investments in women-led SMEs across Sub-Saharan. Tokunboh is a CFA Charter-holder, corporate financier and M&A banker, having worked on over $5.6 billion transactions in the UK, USA and Africa. Currently, she is focused on investing in and building sustainable growth businesses across attractive, consumer-led sectors including agribusiness, financial services, retail, technology and telecommunications - mainly on behalf of discerning institutions, development organisations and corporates looking for a mix of responsible investing, economic impact and social responsibility.