

Project Finance Lawyer

Position Summary

We are currently recruiting for a mid-senior level projects foreign lawyer to join Hogan Lovells' Infrastructure, Energy, Resources and Projects (IERP) practice in our Ho Chi Minh office. The candidates should have between 6 and 10 years' work experience post-graduation as a lawyer at a well-regarded international firm in Vietnam or a leading Vietnamese law firm. The candidate should also have a strong academic background, together with excellent relevant practical experience at a well-established firm and a personality that appreciates both team work and personal ambition. We advise on many of the leading transactions and projects in Vietnam and work with many of the world's largest corporations as well as the public sector and international development agencies. Many of our transactions are cross-border and lawyers are provided with opportunities to work with colleagues on a global basis. We offer a highly multicultural environment and a friendly and supportive office culture.

ROLES & SKILLS

- In-depth knowledge, and extensive practical experience in relation to power, oil & gas and infrastructure work in Vietnam, including on the development and finance side; complementary corporate and M&A transactional experience is welcome, particularly on a cross-border basis acting for foreign investors and financiers.
- The ability to play a leading role on transactions, including drafting and negotiating transaction documents.
- A willingness to work across practice groups and offices as the needs of the Vietnam practice requires.
- International post-graduate study or work experience will be considered favourably

REQUIREMENTS

- Between 6 and 10 years' work experience post-graduation as a UK/US qualified lawyer at a well-regarded international law firm in Vietnam or a leading Vietnamese law firm.
- Professional and proactive
- Extremely organised - ability to prioritise and manage workload

BENEFITS

- Competitive salary commensurate with experience and role
- Premium healthcare insurance
- 25 days' annual leave
- Internal and external training programs
- A firm that values your contribution, progression and development

WHO WE ARE

Hogan Lovells is a top 10 global legal practice with over 2,600 lawyers operating out of 49 offices in Asia, the Middle East, Europe, the United States, Africa and Latin America. In Vietnam, we are one of the longest-established foreign law firms, having operated in the country since 1994, with offices in Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi. Our multilingual, multicultural team of partners and lawyers provides domestic and international clients with a broad offering of legal services in relation to both outbound and inbound matters.

WE WOULD LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU

Please send your application for a role with us to our HR Manager Thuy Nguyen, by email at thuy.nguyen@hoganlovells.com including:

- A cover letter, in English, introducing yourself and the reasons why you believe you would be suited to a career at Hogan Lovells.
- A curriculum vitae (typed), including your educational background and work experience.
- Copies of diplomas and certificates
- Details of two referees

Equal Opportunities Policy

It is the policy of Hogan Lovells to provide equal opportunities for all employees in relation to recruitment, training and promotion. Decisions in these areas will be made only by reference to the requirements of the job and shall not be influenced by any consideration of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, gender identity or expression, age, sexual orientation, or disability.