

Adam Nowosielski

Associate

Warsaw

Biography

Adam Nowosielski received his Master of Law degree from the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Gdansk in 2014. He joined Hogan Lovells in December 2016 and works in the Real Estate Department.

Adam has been advising clients since 2012, and has in-depth knowledge of real estate transactions and lease agreements. He is involved in real estate investments undertaken by developers and investment funds, and private domestic and foreign investors.

He has completed a number of extremely in-depth due diligence reviews and participated in numerous transactions regarding the purchase and sale of real estate and greenfield projects. Adam also provides ongoing assistance related to corporate matters. Before joining Hogan Lovells, he worked in a well-known law firm in Gdansk, and in international law firms in Warsaw.

Adam has also completed the British Law Centre diploma run by the University of Gdansk in cooperation with the University of Cambridge.

He is a member of the Warsaw Bar Association of Attorneys-at-Law.

Latest thinking and events

Phone

+48 22 529 29 00

Fax

+48 22 529 29 01

Email

adam.nowosielski@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Polish

Practices

Corporate
Real Estate

Industries

Real Estate

Education and admissions

■ Press Releases

- Hogan Lovells Warsaw office advised ISOC Group in acquisition of Silesia Business Park Class A office buildings

■ Press Releases

- Hogan Lovells advised on the first ever blockchain technology-based transaction in the Polish office market

Education

MA Law, University of Gdansk, 2014

British and European Law, British Law Centre at Warsaw University, 2014

Memberships

Warsaw Bar Association of Attorneys-at-Law, 2019

Bar admissions and qualifications

Warsaw
