

T. Clark Weymouth

Partner

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Citing his three-plus decades of experience, blue-chip multinationals regularly turn to T. Clark Weymouth for help on significant anti-bribery and anti-corruption compliance issues. His track record with clients is complemented by his leadership role as the Pro Bono partner, overseeing the firm's 100,000+ pro bono hours in the Americas each year.

T.'s practice focuses on regulatory and policy matters that affect international commerce. According to his clients, T. "has long experience in forensic due diligence." The Legal 500 US "recommended practitioner" is known as "an excellent lawyer in financial and corporate matters." Whether it's the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, export controls, economic sanctions, anti-boycott laws, or the Foreign Agents Registration Act, T. has the answers to clients' tough compliance questions, both in the United States and abroad. He regularly handles matters in Asia, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East.

T.'s government service background – he worked on Capitol Hill and with the U.S. Department of Commerce – gives him an insider view of the changing enforcement landscape.

T. is also the partner who manages the firm's pro bono practice in the Americas. He is responsible for vetting
