

Cassandra Herivaux

Associate

New York

Biography

Cassandra Herivaux leverages her comprehensive knowledge and collaborative work style to deliver practical solutions for her clients. Her experience at a multinational financial institution gives her a broad-based perspective and ability to identify effective strategies within the banking practice.

Cassandra was previously a summer associate at the firm. Prior to Hogan Lovells, she worked at an international embassy and other organizations with a focus in financial services.

In law school, she served as a student representative for the Penn Law Women's Association and the Black Law Students Association. Cassandra was also an associate editor for the Penn Law Journal of Business Law.

Phone

+1 212 918 3580

Fax

+1 212 918 3100

Email

cassandra.herivaux@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Banking Transactional

Industries

Financial Institutions

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., University of Pennsylvania Law School, 2018

B.A., Howard University, 2014

Bar admissions and qualifications

New York
