Biography

Shengzhe Wang focuses her practice on debt capital markets. She also heads up our EMEA China-related business. Shengzhe has 15 years' experience in advising German, Chinese and international clients in banking, asset-backed securitisation structured finance and M&A transactions.

Shengzhe is often asked to comment on recent market and practice trends in China by publications such as Bloomberg, FinanceAsia, GlobalCapital Asia and GlobalRMB. She speaks frequently on financial trends and regularly provides insight on regulatory changes in China. Recently, she was invited to speak at a round table discussion focusing on Chinese investment into Latin America held by Legal 500. In July 2018, Shengzhe presented on U.S. regulatory issues impacting IPOs and bond offerings at the PRC Companies Dual Listing Forum organized by Chance Bridge Partners Law Firm and The Research Center of Civil and Commercial Jurisprudence of Renmin University. In addition, she talked about outbound bonds issuance at the Global Capital Market and Outbound Investment Conference co-organized by Hogan Lovells and the Sino-Global Legal Alliance ("SGLA") in June 2017. She also jointly hosted a Belt and Road panel discussion in Beijing, organized by the SGLA late 2017.
