

Chloe Honeyborne

Associate

London

Biography

Chloe Honeyborne focuses her practice on corporate transactions. She helps her clients engaging in mergers and acquisitions, reorganisations, and general corporate advisory work.

Chloe has represented companies spanning a number of industries, including technology, transport, healthcare, life sciences and insurance. She is particularly focused on the financial services sector, advising clients on insurance and pensions M&A deals. Chloe's client's range from FTSE 100 listed companies and multi-jurisdictional businesses to start-ups. She was seconded to the Hogan Lovells Johannesburg office in 2017 and has a keen interest in African investments including infrastructure and energy projects.

Chloe is also passionate about pro bono causes, particularly those related to women's rights. She represents survivors of sexual abuse in their applications for criminal injuries compensation.

Representative experience

Advising Cardano Holdings Limited on its acquisition of NOW: Pensions, a master trust multi-employer occupational pensions scheme.

Phone

+44 20 7296 2000

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

chloe.honeyborne@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Practices

Corporate

Mergers and Acquisitions

Insurance

Energy Regulatory

Education and admissions

Education

Latest thinking and events

- Blog Post
 - Will Brexit remove the "black spot" in the UK-South Africa citrus fruit trade?
- Published Works
 - Investing in South Africa: The road to 2025
Without Prejudice

BA (Hons) Philosophy, Politics and Economics, University of Warwick

Graduate Diploma in Law, BPP University Law School

Legal Practice Course, BPP University Law School

Bar admissions and qualifications

Solicitor, England and Wales
