Biography

Nitin Gambhir is intimately involved in high-stakes intellectual property disputes where he represents technology companies in U.S. district court litigation as well as before the Federal Circuit, International Trade Commission (ITC) and the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB).

Nitin focuses his practice on patent infringement and trade secret litigation. When Nitin is not in the courtroom, he is advising companies on IP strategy, particularly with respect to computer-related technologies. He has represented companies specializing in computer networking, telecommunications, memory controllers, medical imaging, sensor technology, entertainment and internet-related systems. Nitin advises clients on freedom to operate, non-infringement, and invalidity opinions, as well as, intellectual property evaluations, counseling and licensing strategies.

Nitin holds a B.S. in Computer Science and Engineering and M.S. in Computer Science from the University of California Los Angeles, and received a Certificate in High Technology Law while attending the Santa Clara University School of Law.

While in college, Nitin co-founded multiple startups in the internet-related technology space, further demonstrating the depth of his understanding of the technology sector from the inside, out.
