

New Guidance paves the way for more Build to Rent

25 October 2018

Keeping It Real Estate

The Government has issued new guidance to help councils grant planning permission for Build to Rent schemes. This is great news for Build to Rent developers as it should mean that permissions are granted more quickly. Councils are encouraged to plan for Build to Rent in their areas where a need is identified, which should mean that more Build to Rent permissions are granted in the future.
