

Stefano Maccauro

Associate

Rome

Biography

After graduating with honors in 2010, Stefano Maccauro acquired significant experience in a wide variety of areas. Including oil, energy and gas (upstream and downstream), general regulatory, environmental, public procurement and life sciences. In particular, he has developed his experience in conventional energy regulatory matters, especially with respect to gas and renewables projects.

Stefano is also a member of our administrative litigation practice. High quality experience and dedication are Stefano's essential characteristics, together with his genuine passion for anything related to gas sector and energy in general. No matter how complex the issue, Stefano will committedly work towards a solution.
