Lutz works out of our Munich office but is well connected in our global network. He is not only the head of our German practice group Corporate/M&A and of our German corporate compliance team, but is also co-leader of our global life sciences transactions team and member of our global life sciences industry sector team. Lutz' first case in 1993 was a life sciences case and he has worked for life sciences clients ever since. His deep and long-standing life sciences industry experience is instrumental for closing your life sciences deals successfully and the reason why he was awarded the title "Life Sciences Star" by the Legal Media Group.
