

Mauricio Fuchs Tarlovsky

Associate

Mexico City

Biography

Mauricio Fuchs is a legal adviser for Mexican and foreign companies dealing with corporate affairs, mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, energy and infrastructure transactions, structured financing, asset financing (vessels and aircrafts), and real estate.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Mauricio worked in the Mexico City office of another global law firm, where he participated in a number of cross-border transactions involving, among other matters, ship and aircraft financing, infrastructure projects, real estate developments, project financing, and restructuring and financing of projects related to the energy sector.

He has represented international clients in the bidding procedures carried out by the CNH for the awarding of contracts for Round 1.4 and 2.4.

He has also participated in the drafting and negotiation of oil contract including, among others, migrations, exploration and extraction contracts, farm outs and services agreements for the exploration and extraction of hydrocarbons.

Awards and rankings

- Energy and Natural Resources (Mexico), Rising Star, Legal 500 Latin America, 2019

Phone

+52 55 5091 0067

Fax

+52 55 5091 0123

Email

mauricio.fuchs@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Infrastructure, Energy, Resources, and Projects

Transportation

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., New York University School of Law, 2008

Law Degree, Universidad
Iberoamericana, 2003
