

David Walsh

Senior Counsel

Boston

Biography

David Walsh advises his clients on antitrust issues, competition, and economic regulation in transactions ranging from complicated cross-border matters to smaller domestic deals.

He brings over 36 years of integrated in-house experience to the firm after spending his entire career in the legal department at IBM. His wealth of knowledge and personal experience working with outside counsel helps him anticipate clients' needs and work beside them to solve cutting-edge challenges – quickly and efficiently.

David's deep understanding of issues affecting the technology space and his well-rounded experience handling matters in each of these facets make him an asset to clients in the industry. He couples this extensive industry knowledge with an innovative, forward-thinking, and practical approach to create tailored strategies to help his clients achieve their business goals.

Throughout his career, David has worked in various leadership roles at IBM. Most recently, he served as the leader of IBM's Global Business Services legal department, as well as IBM's merger and acquisition and antitrust legal teams. He was also a member of IBM's global senior leadership team. In addition, David

Phone

+1 617 371 1025

Fax

+1 617 371 1037

Email

david.walsh@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Antitrust and Competition

Industries

Technology & Telecoms

Areas of focus

False Claims Act and Qui Tam

Education and admissions

Education

served as IBM's head of global antitrust for many years, where his accomplishments included successfully resolving multiple matters involving the U.S. Department of Justice, the European Commission, and other antitrust authorities.

Latest thinking and events

- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells Boston office moves to 125 High Street
- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells Advises IBM In Acquisition of Red Hat, Inc.
- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells Bolsters Antitrust and M&A practice in Boston with the Addition of David Walsh

J.D., Suffolk University Law School, 1982

B.A., University of Miami, 1979

Bar admissions and qualifications

Massachusetts
