

Lee Whitesell

Senior Associate

Houston

Biography

Lee Whitesell thrives in the space between the theoretical and the practical. As a veteran of the United States Army, Lee wields a tenacious work ethic and unswerving loyalty to find creative and functional solutions for his clients' most complex disputes.

Lee's experience spans the full life cycle of complex litigation in state and federal court, from investigating claims and managing discovery through trial and on to appeals. He also serves as litigation counsel in bankruptcy court, and advises clients across a wide range of industries, including energy, life sciences, and health care.

Lee previously served as a law clerk to the Honorable Edith Hollan Jones, United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. He earned his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania Law School where he learned litigation at the highest levels as a member of the Penn Supreme Court Clinic.

Prior to law school, Lee served as a logistics officer in the United States Army. He earned the Bronze Star Medal during his deployment in Operation Iraqi Freedom in support of the First Cavalry Division.

Representative experience
