

Guy Marrison

Senior Associate

London

Biography

Guy Marrison is a senior associate in our financial services litigation team. He has experience across a broad range of investment banking and retail disputes, including alleged mis-selling of financial products, claims relating to complex securities, and consumer credit claims (including ss. 56, 75 and 140 of the Consumer Credit Act).

Guy also practices more general commercial litigation and has experience of contract disputes, fraud and asset-tracing, and a broad range of interlocutory applications.

Guy's background in business means he has a commercially-driven approach to solving his client's problems and helping them to achieve their objectives.
