

Richard A. Sillett

Attorney
New York

Biography

Financial services litigation is complex and tends to go on for long periods of time. Richard Sillett leads clients through the process and works to manage and resolve claims as effectively and efficiently as possible.

An attorney in our Consumer Finance Litigation Group, Richard represents lenders in litigation in New York state court. He helps clients find creative and time-sensitive solutions for disposing claims before they ever go to trial.

Previously, Richard worked for several boutique and mid-sized law firms, where he focused on commercial litigation, business torts, and international arbitration. Prior to the practice of law, Richard worked as an editor for several New York publishing houses.
