

David Hoyos

Associate

Monterrey

Biography

Focusing his practice on constitutional, civil and commercial litigation, David Hoyos de la Garza always provides a proactive viewpoint to his advice.

From commercial matters being held before a Nuevo Leon State Court to constitutional litigations (“amparo” proceedings) against Mexican authorities in federal courts, David understands the dynamics of doing business in Mexico and always looks for a quick solution to the client.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, David worked on two major litigation law firms.

Representative experience

Participated in the representation of an exporter business against one of Mexico's largest courier and parcel companies.

Participated in an "amparo" proceeding regarding an unconstitutional urban development fee for a Mexican metallurgical company.

Participated in the representation of a large Mexican hotel chain against a federal authority regarding a highway access.

Represented a child's parents in an "amparo" proceeding defending his civil rights against an

Phone

+52 81 8220 1526

Fax

+52 81 8220 1529

Email

david.hoyos@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Litigation Services

Administrative and Public Law

Business and Human Rights

Commercial Litigation

International Arbitration

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Latin America Regional Practice

Industries

Automotive and Mobility

Consumer

Financial Institutions

improper registration.

Insurance

Real Estate

Diversified Industrials

Education and admissions

Education

Law Degree, Universidad de Monterrey, 2017
