

Benjamin B. Jacobs

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Ben Jacobs offers applied knowledge and experience from years of counseling clients in technology-related transactions. He advises clients across numerous industries and sectors, including life sciences, telecom, transportation and aerospace.

Ben joined Hogan Lovells from the Federal Aviation Administration, where he advised the agency on regulatory matters related to advanced aircraft, commercial space systems and unmanned aircraft systems. Before that, Ben held a number of positions as an honors attorney within the U.S. Department of Transportation, including with the Federal Railroad Administration and the department's Office of the General Counsel.

Latest thinking and events

- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises Intuitive Surgical on the acquisition of Schöly's robotic endoscope business
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Preparing for the space innovations of today and tomorrow
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Top commercial space developments in 2017 for

Phone

+1 202 637 5792

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

bjacobs@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Administrative and Public Law

Aviation Law

Commercial

Communications, Internet, and Media

Corporate

Space and Satellite

Transportation

Industries

Aerospace, Defense, and Government Services

Diversified Industrials

ADG companies ADG Insights

- Blog Post
- From Garage to Global Coverage: SmallSat Growth and Opportunities are the Focus of the 2017 SmallSat Symposium and CSSMA Meeting

Life Sciences and Health Care

TMT

Areas of focus

Technology Contracts

Networks and Platforms

Automotive Regulatory

Rail

Company Formation

Corporate Group Structures

IP Licensing, Commercialization,
and Technology Transfer

Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, cum laude, 2012

B.A., University of Toronto, with distinction, 2007

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

Maryland
