

Lilly Taranto

Senior Associate

London

Biography

As a senior associate in the global Privacy and Cyber Security practice of Hogan Lovells, Lilly Taranto has in-depth knowledge in advising major international and domestic companies on data protection compliance programs, cross-border data transfers and data sharing projects including e-marketing, data security breaches, online privacy and binding corporate rules. Lilly has experience in running complex multi-jurisdictional data privacy projects in the life science, online retail, travel, technology, and finance sectors.

Member of the IAPP with Certified Information Privacy Professional (Europe) (CIPP/E) status Lilly has written many articles and is also one of the authors of the IAPP's 'European Privacy: Law and Practice for Data Protection Professionals'.

Lilly is bi-lingual (English and Italian).

Representative experience

Advising life science companies on GDPR compliance.

Advice on data protection aspects of clinical trials and clinical research.

Carrying out privacy impact assessments on the products of a cutting-edge technology company.

Advising and coordinating the advice of local counsel

Phone

+44 20 7296 5987

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

lilly.taranto@hoganlovells.com

Languages

Italian

Practices

Privacy and Cybersecurity

Industries

Consumer

Education

Financial Institutions

Insurance

TMT

Life Sciences and Health Care

on international data transfers for a financial services company operating in over 80 countries.

Advising and coordinating the advice of local counsel on employee monitoring and e-marketing for a travel company, operating globally.

Drafting and negotiating data processing and data sharing agreements.

Drafting global consumer facing privacy policies for multinational travel companies.

Drafting policies on data retention, BYOD, employee monitoring, cookies, data security and acceptable use.

Drafting data transfer agreements and coordinating their submission/approval by national Data Protection Authorities.

Carrying out data protection audits for companies operating in the financial, technology and retail sectors.

Awards and rankings

- CIPP/E

Latest thinking and events

- Events
 - Weathering COVID-19: A webinar series. Labor/Employment and Privacy - what Japanese companies need to know
- News
 - New data protection friendly eCommercial model clinical trial agreements now available
- News
 - Making COVID-19 apps data protection compliant
- Insights
 - AI and Drug Development: IP and data protection challenges - Webinar recording
- Hogan Lovells Events
 - AI and Drug Development: IP and data protection

Areas of focus

Food and Beverages

Retail and Consumer Goods

Education and admissions

Education

Legal Practice Course, BPP University Law School, 2007

Graduate Diploma in Law, BPP University Law School, 2006

MSc in Media and Communications Regulation, London School of Economics and Political Science, 2002

LL.B., LUISS Guido Carli University, 1999

Memberships

IAPP - International Association of Privacy Professionals

The Law Society

Bar admissions and qualifications

Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/E)

challenges

- News

- Medical Research Council advises on how to anonymise information for research purposes