

Aldo Boni de Nobili

Senior Associate

Beijing

Milan

Biography

As a senior associate in our Corporate Group, Aldo Boni de Nobili focuses his practice on transactional corporate matters. He advises a range of clients, including multinational corporations, primarily on cross-border mergers and acquisitions, outbound investments and foreign direct investment into China in the retail, food and beverage, education, e-commerce, and banking industries, among others. His practice also covers infrastructure and energy projects.

Aldo joined Hogan Lovells' Milan team in 2012, where he was an associate in the Finance group, and has been working in our Beijing office since 2013. Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Aldo worked in the banking and finance department of a renowned Italian law firm and in the Beijing office of a major Chinese law firm. Aldo speaks Italian, English and Chinese Mandarin.

Representative experience

Advising top-tier UK firm on establishing luxury outlet shopping centers in China, corporate/commercial issues, and negotiation of lease documentation with brand tenants.

Advising the Ministry of Finance of Ecuador in connection with a dual currency loan of approximately

Phone

+86 10 6582 9521 Ext 2521 (Beijing)

+39 02 7202521 (Milan)

Fax

+86 10 6582 9499 (Beijing)

+39 02 72025252 (Milan)

Email

aldo.bonidenobili@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Italian

Chinese

Practices

Banking Transactional

Business Restructuring and Insolvency

Commercial

Corporate

Education

US$900 million from China Development Bank.

Advising owners of group of companies providing education services in China in the context of offshore and onshore sale of business to renowned private equity firm.

Advising a Chinese investment fund in connection with finance transactions involving the development of infrastructure projects in Africa.

Advising a leading Chinese E-commerce company on the formation of an e-commerce and logistics joint venture in Indonesia.

Advising financial institutions on securitization transactions of receivables from residential mortgage loans (RMBS), commercial mortgage loans (CMBS), loans to small-medium enterprises (SMEs), and financial leasing.

Advising Duke University on the establishment of Sino-foreign higher education institute Duke Kunshan University in Kunshan, Jiangsu Province.

Advising banks and corporates on national and cross-border bank finance transactions, including in the fields of acquisition finance, LBOs, mortgage lending and real estate finance.

Advising Intel Capital in connection with venture capital investments in leading edge technology companies in China.

Advising bank syndicates on several debt restructuring deals, including both in the context of formal certified plans, restructuring agreements and composition with creditors.

Advising the Republic of Ecuador in connection with several oil-backed financing transactions involving Chinese banks and oil buyers.

Latest thinking and events

Infrastructure, Energy, Resources, and Projects

Joint Ventures

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity

Real Estate

Industries

Automotive and Mobility

Education

Energy and Natural Resources

Financial Institutions

Real Estate

Areas of focus

Construction and Engineering

Corporate and Commercial Transactions

Cross-border Restructuring and Insolvency

Emerging Companies and Venture Capital

M&A and Joint Ventures

Private Equity and Venture Capital

Real Estate Development

Real Estate Investment

Hogan Lovells China Desk

Water

- News
 - China implements new foreign exchange rules in the Free Trade Zones
- ■ Investing in China's TMT sector: What you need to know?
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - China's NAFMII publishes Panda Bond rules for non-financial issuers Client Alert
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Investing in asset-backed notes through the Bond Connect scheme: a new channel to access the Chinese debt capital markets
- ■ In black and white letter law China issues new Panda bond rules

Education and admissions

Education

Law Degree, University of Trieste, 2006

Bar admissions and qualifications

Italy

Milan
