

Michael Morehead

Associate

Houston

Biography

Clients rely on Michael Morehead to advocate clearly and forcefully on their behalf in their most important and sophisticated matters. He has litigation experience in both state and federal court and regularly serves as counsel in cases involving hundreds of parties and tens of millions, hundreds of millions, and billions in damages.

During law school, Michael interned for the Texas First Court of Appeals and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. He also did appellate work for Travis County, Texas, and served as an editorial board member of the Texas Review of Law & Politics and a national symposium editor of the Harvard Journal of Law & Public Policy.

After graduating from law school, Michael served as a two-year judicial law clerk for the Honorable Micaela Alvarez of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. During this time, Michael drafted opinions, orders, bench memoranda, and discovery schedules, and more generally managed one-half of Judge Alvarez's civil docket.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Michael offered insurers coverage advice and defense services as an associate at another Am 100 law firm. He also defended insured parties.
