

Philippe Monfort

Senior Associate

Paris

Biography

Philippe advises on French and international aspects of financing transactions: corporate lending, acquisition finance, tax lease transactions (including French law tax minimisation structure in favour of the French overseas territories) and structured finance, with a particular focus on asset finance (aviation, shipping, rail and infrastructure).

Additionally, Philippe also works on export credit, general banking and factoring transaction.

Philippe read law at the University of Toulouse and holds a DESS in International Relations (with Distinction) at Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Toulouse (Sciences-Po). He also holds an LLM in Maritime Law from the University of Southampton.

Philippe was admitted to the Paris Bar in 2010 and to the Roll of Solicitors in 2016. He is fluent in French and English and has an intermediate level in Mandarin Chinese.

He joined our banking and finance team in 2016.
