

Stephanie A. Michael

Senior Associate
Northern Virginia

Biography

Stephanie Michael advises clients on both buy-side and sell-side mergers and acquisitions, stock and asset transactions, and private equity portfolio transactions. In addition to her role on deal teams, Stephanie frequently assists clients with corporate governance matters.

Stephanie counsels clients in a diverse range of industries. Her undergraduate degrees in finance and economics provide a framework for considering efficient solutions to complex transactional issues. Beginning with her experience as a summer associate at the firm, Stephanie has continued to develop expansive knowledge in the industries of aerospace and defense, government and technology, media, and telecommunications, which allows her to craft creative approaches to the legal issues her clients face.

Stephanie's career began before law school, when she spent several years as a legal assistant at a Virginia real estate law firm. While at the University of Virginia School of Law, Stephanie worked as a research assistant dealing with tax legislation, and served as an editor of the Virginia Tax Review. She graduated summa cum laude from the University of Maryland with a double degree in finance and economics.
