

Julia S. Hardinger

Attorney

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Julia Hardinger works with clients to uncover the facts needed to have a favorable outcome in their cases. As a veteran litigator, Julia has 18 years of experience counseling clients through all aspects of legal discovery and eDiscovery, including document retention and litigation readiness; document collection, review, and analysis; production; assertion of privilege; and compliance with ever-changing federal and state discovery rules.

Clients also value Julia's practical experience in designing and executing complex discovery plans and managing global legal teams consisting of clients, attorneys, and technology vendors. Attorneys and clients call on Julia when the logistics of legal discovery threaten to overshadow the merits of the dispute or drain the legal budget.

Julia is also active in the firm's Electronic Information Group (EIG) and is dedicated to advancing the firm's eDiscovery practice through new lawyer training, development of Continuing Legal Education (CLE), and eDiscovery best practices.

Representative experience

Conducted and completed technology-assisted review and drafted an internal study of the results and costs as compared to a traditional attorney review.
