Associate

Tokyo

Biography

Kyle Reykalin is an associate in our IPMT team in the Tokyo office. He uses his unique cross-border and cultural experience to counsel Japanese and international companies in life sciences and other industries on both contentious and non-contentious patent, trade secrets, licensing, and trademark issues.

He began his career in Silicon Valley, where he gained a broad range of litigation experience including in trade secrets, intellectual property, non-compete and non-solicitation disputes, for some of Silicon Valley's largest companies.

In Japan, he founded and served as the Director of document review services for Japan's first e-discovery company, where he worked with Japanese clients to develop unique strategies to leverage artificial intelligence to reduce the cost and time needed to conduct document reviews. He also advised Japanese companies on U.S. discovery practices and procedures, as well as U.S. law firms in the unique challenges of Asian-language discovery.

Kyle is a member of the State Bar of California, an adjunct professor at Temple University, Beasley School of Law in Tokyo, and former Associate Editor of the Employment Chapter of the American Bar Association's Annual Review of Developments in Business and
