

Johannes Makepeace

Associate

Munich

Biography

Johannes Makepeace advises national and international clients on white-collar crime and compliance issues.

His practice includes the organization and conduct of internal investigations, often in connection with investigations by public prosecutors.

During his legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Nuremberg, Johannes Makepeace already worked for us in Munich and Washington, D.C. After his Second State Exam in Law, Johannes Makepeace initially worked as a research assistant and lecturer for criminal law at the University of Regensburg. Parallel to working as an associate, he is currently completing his Ph.D. in criminal procedural law.

Representative experience

Advising various major companies from the automotive industry on compliance topics and large scale internal investigations.

Advising a global provider of automotive products in the review of its internal processes, among others on compliance related topics.

Advising an insolvency administrator with regard to the investigation and enforcement of potential claims against former board members and employees resulting from alleged bribery payments.

Phone

+49 89 290 12 0

Fax

+49 89 290 12 222

Email

johannes.makepeace@hoganlovells.com

Languages

German

English

Practices

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Industries

Automotive

Life Sciences and Health Care

Education and admissions

Education

Advising a global biotech and pharmaceutical company in connection with an internal investigation regarding compliance related topics.

Second State Exam in Law, Bavaria, 2019

First State Exam in Law, University of Regensburg, 2016

Memberships

Munich Bar Association
