

Vicki Kooner

Associate

London

Biography

Vicki Kooner is part of the firm's Global Product Law practice where she regularly provides clients with product regulatory, compliance and safety advice relating to all stages of their product's life cycle.

Her work to date has included assisting global clients launch their innovative products - which include connected technology products and consumer electronics - across the globe.

Vicki has also helped her major consumer product manufacturers clients manage international corrective actions following the identification of safety issues.

Representative experience

Acted for a range of global technology companies and manufacturing giants on product regulatory matters relating to all stages of the product life cycle.

Advised on mandatory certifications and compliance requirements and provided packaging and labelling regulatory advice for a variety of consumer products.

Advised on product compliance queries coordinating translations related to health and safety warnings on product packaging, in-box user manuals and consumer warranties.

Advised on trade and compliance queries related to the

Phone

+44 20 7050 3428

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

vicki.kooner@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Punjabi

Practices

Products Law

Industries

Consumer

shipment and testing of prototypes and coordinating market entry surveys for consumer products launches.

Advised and prepared training materials on the applicability of the EU textiles regulations to a number of global manufacturers' product.

Advised global product manufacturers on how to provide their warranty terms to consumers, taking into account their sales model.

Dealt with several complex multi-jurisdictional regulatory matters requiring the advice of local lawyers and other experts.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Gearing up for enhanced consumer protection: the impact of the EU's new rules
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Brexit and REACH: What does it mean for products companies?

Areas of focus

Consumer Product Safety
Regulation

Product Compliance

Education and admissions

Education

LL.B., University of Birmingham,
2013

Bar admissions and qualifications

Solicitor, England and Wales
