

Marie-Antoinette Rettori

Associate

Paris

Biography

Marie-Antoinette is an associate in Hogan Lovells' Paris office and has been working in the International Debt Capital Markets department since 2015. She advises both corporate companies and financial institutions in relation to their financial market operations.

Marie-Antoinette's practice focuses on debt capital markets and structured finance and extends to a wide range of financial transactions including bond issues, securitisations and derivatives.

Representative experience

Advising BNP Paribas as arrangers in relation to the issue of Euro PP bonds by Société Anonyme d'Explosifs et de Produits Chimiques

Advising Alstom on the financial closing aspects of the acquisition of its energy business by General Electric Advising Volkswagen Financial Services on Driver UK two, its £1.2bn securitisation of UK automotive receivables through Driver UK Multi-Compartment S.A.

Advising a French credit institution in connection with the securitisation of auto lease receivables through a "fonds commun de titrisation à compartiments".

Advising a leading French bank in relation to the

Phone

+33 1 53 67 47 47

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

marie-antoinette.rettori@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Practices

Capital Markets

Industries

Automotive and Mobility

Financial Institutions

Education and admissions collateral documentation for its derivative transactions in compliance with EMIR margin requirements.

Education

Master 2 in Financial Law, University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, 2013

LL.M in Commercial Law, University of Cambridge, 2012

LL.B., University of Essex, 2011

Bar admissions and qualifications

Paris
