

Jason D. Sternberg

Counsel

Miami

Biography

Complex business litigation calls for a lawyer with problem solving experience. In both his private practice and his pro bono work, Jason Sternberg focuses first and foremost on creative solutions.

Jason helps clients resolve complex domestic and international business disputes through litigation and arbitration. Clients turn to him for complex commercial matters, including breach of contract and tortious interference claims; patent, trademark, and copyright litigation; real estate, banking, and construction litigation; and securities and corporate governance disputes. Jason has also authored several successful appellate briefs to various courts, including the United States Courts of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the Florida Third and Fourth District Courts of Appeal.

Jason maintains an active pro bono practice. He has devoted more than 100 hours to pro bono legal services in each of the last several years and has won awards and recognition for his service on behalf of pro bono clients.

Jason previously served as a law clerk to the Honorable Daniel T.K. Hurley, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of Florida.

While in law school, Jason served as administrative
