

Takashi Okuda

Associate

New York

Biography

Takashi Okuda has years of experience advising clients in a wide variety of patent litigation matters, involving multinational, life sciences, and technology companies.

Takashi has vast experience in all aspects of patent litigation, including trial, Markman proceedings, motion practice, depositions, preparation of expert reports, and other discovery matters.

Prior to law school in the United States, Takashi attended university in Japan. He is well-versed in the U.S. discovery process and leverages his Japanese speaking ability to work closely with Japanese clients to help navigate the U.S. legal system.

Representative experience

Representing a leading Japanese pharmaceutical firm in numerous Hatch-Waxman patent infringement cases.

Represented leading Japanese electronics companies in patent infringement litigation involving methods and apparatus for manufacturing LCD panels.

Represented Santen and Asahi Glass in Hatch-Waxman litigation and inter partes review proceeding relating to the glaucoma drug.

Represented a Japanese multinational electronics

Phone

+1 212 918 3658

Fax

+1 212 918 3100

Email

takashi.okuda@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Japanese

Practices

Patents
Intellectual Property

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care
TMT

company in patent infringement litigation brought by major Norton Power Eraser involving semiconductor manufacturing technology.

Latest thinking and events

- Webinar
 - Webinar: Current Status of Pharmaceutical Patents in Post Grant Proceedings

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Boston College Law School, 2004

LL.B., Keio University, 2001

Bar admissions and qualifications

New York
