

Quimby M. Pierce

Attorney

Los Angeles

Biography

When it comes to deals, companies look for efficiency and business savvy. Quimby Pierce brings both to her clients. She helps them with general corporate transactional work as well as public company securities work. She has helped companies in industries as diverse as defense, consumer products, entertainment, and media.

Quimby has represented U.S. and international publicly traded companies as well as private companies in a variety of transactions, including private placements, corporate restructuring, divestments, and acquisitions. Her experience with publicly traded companies has ranged from IPOs, spin-offs, and going private transactions to secondary and follow-on offerings of equity and debt securities. She has also represented several public companies in connection with their period reporting requirements and securities compliance.

Quimby began her legal career before attending law school, working for a major record label as a contract administrator. In that role, she negotiated ancillary agreements, tracked contractual requirements for all recording artists and helped to develop the label's motion picture production arm. After law school, she was hired by a major motion picture studio to work in its in-house corporate department, where she handled

Phone

+1 310 785 4669

Fax

+1 310 785 4601

Email

quimby.pierce@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Industries

Sports, Media & Entertainment

Areas of focus

Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology
Media

Education and admissions

matters related to its IPO and expansion through several acquisitions.

Representative experience

Represented Meggitt PLC in the sale of its Sunbank connectors business.

Represented Meggitt PLC in the acquisition of Piezotech LLC.

Represented 21st Century Fox in its equity investment in an online media company.

Securities counsel to a publicly traded consumer home electronics company.*

Underwriters counsel for secondary and follow-on offerings by a publicly traded semiconductor chip manufacturer.*

Corporate restructuring, including note redemption by a multination corporation.*

*Matter handled prior to joining Hogan Lovells.

Education

J.D., University of Southern California, 1996

A.B., Dartmouth College, 1987

Bar admissions and qualifications

California
