

Aleksandra Połatyńska

Associate

Warsaw

Biography

Aleksandra Połatyńska is an advocate and a member of the Dispute Resolution team in the Hogan Lovells Warsaw office. She assists Polish and international clients in a range of disputes before state and arbitration courts, as well as before the enforcement authorities.

Her practice focuses on cases of a commercial nature, including white collar crime, the protection of intellectual property rights, and medical law. Aleksandra also has experience in anti-money laundering, and terrorist financing regulations.

Aleksandra graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Warsaw in 2016, and completed a one-year American law class at the Center for American Law Studies at the University of Warsaw. Aleksandra is fluent in English, German, and French.

Latest thinking and events

- Published Works
 - EU Products Law - Second edition

Phone

+48 22 529 86 51

Fax

+48 22 529 29 01

Email

aleksandra.polatynska@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
German
French
Polish

Practices

Litigation Services
Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud
Commercial Litigation

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care
Technology and Telecoms
Mobility and Transportation

Real Estate

Areas of focus

Anti-Corruption Compliance and
Due Diligence

Anti-money Laundering

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., University of Warsaw, 2016

Bar admissions and qualifications

Warsaw
