

Solfa Mehrabuddin, LL.M.

Senior Business Lawyer

Hamburg

Biography

Solfa Mehrabuddin is particularly involved in international matters and can also provide support in several languages.

Solfa acts for clients in particular from automotive and technology & telecoms sector, many of which are Fortune 500 and DAX 40 companies. She has specific experience in conducting international compliance investigations, in particular coordinating and monitoring e-discovery and project management measures.

A further focus of Solfa's work lies on compliance management, including the creation and implementation of global compliance systems as well as reporting systems.

Representative experience

Advising a globally leading automotive group on internal investigations regarding product non-compliance allegations including dawn raid support and communication with authorities.

Advising a major company from the automotive industry on compliance topics and large scale internal investigations.

Phone

+49 40 419 93 0

Fax

+49 40 419 93 200

Email

solfa.mehrabuddin@hoganlovells.com

Languages

German
English
Dari
Farsi

Practices

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Industries

Automotive
Technology and Telecoms
Life Sciences and Health Care

Areas of focus

Advising major companies from the automotive industry on compliance topics and internal investigations, including dawn raid support.

Advising a worldwide logistics service provider on the efficiency of its global compliance system and its internal governance and risk management procedures.

Advising an international construction company on an investigation initiated by the World Bank into projects in Africa and the Middle East.

Provide general compliance support to one of the world's leading automotive suppliers.

Advising a leading MDAX company on the implementation and handling of a whistleblower hotline including related follow-up actions.

Bribery and Corruption

Dawn Raids

Government Investigations

Risk Management, Governance, and Compliance

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., Hochschule Wismar,
University of Applied Sciences, 2017

First State Exam in Law, University of Hamburg, 2013
