

Barry Dalin

Associate

Baltimore

Biography

Barry Dalin helps clients navigate complex commercial litigation and other disputes with a practical, business-minded focus.

Barry joined Hogan Lovells after clerking for the Chief Judge of the Maryland Court of Appeals and working at a health care consulting firm in Washington, D.C., where he advised pharmaceutical and medical device companies on market access strategies.

As part of his work in Maryland Carey Law's immigration clinic, he argued on behalf of petitioner in Sanchez v. Sessions, a complex immigration case decided by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. He also served as a managing editor of the Maryland Law Review.
