

Gauthier Vannieuwenhuyse

Counsel

Paris

Biography

As a counsel in our International Arbitration Group, Gauthier Vannieuwenhuyse focuses his practice on commercial and investment treaty arbitration.

He brings extensive experience of arbitration under the rules of the ICC, LCIA, ICSID and UNCITRAL, acting for companies from diverse industries as well as on behalf of States and international organizations. Gauthier has particular experience in arbitration in the Technology, Media and Telecommunications, energy, and pharmaceutical sectors, with a focus on emerging markets, particularly in the Middle East and Africa. He also regularly acts in arbitration-related Court proceedings including annulment proceedings before the Paris Court of Appeal, and as administrative secretary to arbitral tribunals.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Gauthier was an associate in the international arbitration team at a major international law firm. He also publishes regularly on topical issues in international arbitration.

Representative experience

Representing a media conglomerate against a Lebanese company in parallel ICC arbitrations concerning breaches of agreements relating to their business in the Middle East.

Phone

+33 1 53 67 47 47

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

gauthiervannieuwenhuyse@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French
German

Practices

International Arbitration
Technology Litigation

Advising a market-leading telecom tower infrastructure company in pre-arbitration negotiations against a French telecom company in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Representing an oil and gas company in an ICC arbitration brought against it and three other companies concerning corporate law issues.

Representing a technology firm in LCIA and ICC arbitrations against its North African contractor regarding engineering contracts for oil exploration in North Africa.

Representing a central Asian state in an UNCITRAL arbitration brought by a Canadian mining company under the Energy Charter Treaty relating to uranium mining licenses.

Representing a French multinational company in ICC arbitration against an American company regarding a contract for the supply of equipment for an aluminium plant.

Representing a company specialised in the design and delivery of broad-based telecommunications in an LCIA arbitration against a telecommunications company in Cameroon.

Representing a North African State entity in ICC arbitration proceedings and in court proceedings in relation to several of its investments.

Representing an African company in ICC arbitration proceedings in relation to the renovation of a hotel.

Representing a Guernsey company in annulment proceedings against an arbitral award before the Paris Court of Appeal.

Advising a Mexican state-related entity in relation to the freezing of its assets in a European country.

Latest thinking and events

Industries

Diversified Industrials

Energy and Natural Resources

Technology & Telecoms

Life Sciences and Health Care

Areas of focus

Public International Law

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M. International Business Law,
University College London, 2008

M.Phil, Public International Law and International Organisations,
Université Paris I Panthéon-
Sorbonne, 2006

LL.B. in French and German Law,
Université Paris X Nanterre /
Universität Potsdam, 2004

Memberships

ASA below 40

ICC YAF

ICDR Y&I

YIAG – LCIA

- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells Celebrates the New Year with 29 Promotions to Partner and 56 Promotions to Counsel
- Newsletters and Alerts
 - 2018-2022 French Programming Act for Justice: inching towards virtual justice?
 - Paris International Arbitration Week Event
- Published Works
 - Robots Replacing Arbitrators: Smart Contract Arbitration ICC Dispute Resolution Bulletin
- Sponsorships and Speaking Engagements
 - 2nd ICC European conference, Speaker on the panel "AI, smart contracts, Blockchain and the end of arbitration as we know it?"
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - The future of arbitration: New technologies are making a big impact — and AI robots may take on “human” roles

Bar admissions and qualifications

Paris
