

Spring 2018

At Hogan Lovells, we follow industry trends very closely and we take great care to listen to our clients and contacts – to understand the issues they face and how the industry is changing. Our Debt Capital Markets – Global insights publication reflects this dialogue and brings together a number of different perspectives from around the globe.

In this issue, we cover the following topics:

- Discontinuation of LIBOR: How documentation in securitizations and other debt capital markets transactions is responding to the development
- EU Benchmark Regulation: Is your transaction up to the mark?
- Impact of the MiFID II Product Governance Rules
- Changes to the Italian securitization law: A boost for the NPLs market
- Balancing regulation and innovation: The current thinking around the potential impact of Fintech on the resolution of financial institutions
- New Sunshine Over Luxemburg – SOL: with the Securities Official List, the Luxemburg Stock Exchange is again at the forefront of innovation
- The SEC proposes to modernize and simplify its disclosure requirements
- Brazilian Equities: the re-opening of the Brazilian equity markets to foreign investment through increased IPO activity
- Bolsa Institucional de Valores: a new financing option for Mexican SMEs
- MAS Green Bond Grant Scheme
