

Louise Crawford

Senior Associate

London

Biography

Louise has experience in a wide range of technology, commercial and data protection work including technology and outsourcing agreements, multi-jurisdictional compliance programmes and data transfer projects. She has a particular focus on the financial services and insurance sectors and has in-depth experience advising clients on outsourcing policies and contracting methodologies within regulatory requirements.

Having previously worked in Hong Kong, Singapore and Dubai, Louise has a good understanding of the variation in laws and regulatory environments in other regions and how this impacts global businesses, and she has experience in helping clients maintain consistency in their compliance approach globally.

Louise advises clients on both the customer and supplier side. She also has in-house IT legal experience, having spent a year on secondment working in the technology legal team of a global bank advising on IT, data protection and outsourcing projects in the Asia Pacific region.
