

Jennifer Brechbill

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Jennifer Brechbill is uniquely positioned to help businesses navigate an ever-changing legal landscape. With experience in internal and government investigations, civil litigation, and compliance counseling, she takes a personal interest in learning about the industries in which she works. Jennifer works with both public and private companies confronting sensitive legal challenges. She also counsels clients to minimize legal risk by creating and implementing customized compliance programs that meet their business needs.

Jennifer is passionate about using her legal skills to help indigent clients. Her wide range of pro bono experience includes immigration, veteran's affairs, housing rights, Title VII, and § 1983 cases. She was a recipient of a 2013 Good Citizenship Award as a member of the Kids in Need of Defense team, and a 2014 Good Citizenship Award as a member of the Tahirih Justice Center team. Her work with the Tahirih Justice Center contributed to Hogan Lovells being recognized as Firm of the Year by Tahirih in 2015.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Jennifer attended Harvard Law School, where she served as President of the student body.

Representative experience

Phone

+1 202 637 3281

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

jennifer.brechbill@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Litigation Services

---

Industries

Aerospace and Defense

Consumer

Life Sciences and Health Care

---

Areas of focus

Anti-corruption and FCPA

Bribery and Corruption

False Claims Act and Qui Tam

Successfully argued a motion for class certification on behalf of a class of homeless families.

Regularly represents large public companies in complex litigation and large-scale government investigations.

Obtained legal status for undocumented women and children.

Regularly conducts internal investigations in various industries in order to identify legal risk and violations of company policy, including relating to customs violations and export controls.

Counsels public and private companies in developing and enhancing compliance programs to prevent bribery and corruption and other violations of law or company policy.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - The U.S. Department of Justice updates roadmap to an effective compliance program
- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - Protecting attorney work product in internal investigations: A cautionary tale
- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - Back to work during COVID-19: A guide for retailers re-opening their doors
- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - Five things retailers should consider in the COVID-19 era
- Published Works
  - Best practices for internal investigations during COVID-19 Bloomberg Law
- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - Coronavirus and cracks in your armor: Recognizing impending financial stressors spawned by a health

Government Investigations

---

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Harvard Law School, cum laude, 2011

B.A., Johns Hopkins University, Phi Beta Kappa, Hodson Scholar, 2008

---

Memberships

Member, Young Lawyers Division, American Bar Association

Participant, The Anti-Defamation League Glass Leadership Institute 2012-2013

Board Member, Anti-Defamation League, Young Professionals Division (Co-Chair, Glass Leadership Institute) 2013-2014

---

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

Maryland

---

Court admissions

U.S. District Court, District of Maryland

---

pandemic