

Hogan Lovells Taiwan Desk

Taiwan is known for its world class manufacturing capabilities and expertise spanning products as diverse as luxury golf clubs and semiconductor and ASIC chips. Many Taiwanese companies are investing in diversified sectors of businesses in mainland China, Vietnam, and other countries throughout Asia and the world. This unique market characteristic is especially well-matched to our firm's industry-focused practice groups and global footprint.

Our practice breadth, geographical reach, and industry knowledge provide us with insights into the issues that affect our clients most deeply. They also enable us to provide high-quality business-oriented legal advice to assist clients in achieving their commercial goals. We believe that our commitment to client service, commercial focus, and teamwork allows us to create a synergy with our clients. Our goal is to be one of the firms clients call upon when there is a transaction and to be there to advise and assist the client generally to navigate the increasingly complicated market and regulatory regime around the world.

Our team has handled some of the most significant transactions across the globe in the technology; life sciences; health care; energy; food and beverage; real estate; and aerospace, defense, and government services sectors.

We have established close working relationships with major leading Taiwanese law firms, and we are accustomed to managing and working closely with local counsel. Acting
