

Ulrich Heßling

Senior Associate

Hamburg

Biography

Ulrich Heßling advises national and international companies on all matters concerning commercial and corporate law. Ulrich can assist you in the drafting and negotiation of complex contracts for domestic and cross border M&A transactions, particularly in the energy and health care sector.

He further provides advice in matters relating to the acquisition and sale of on- and offshore wind farm projects and is experienced in litigation relating to disputes in the energy sector.

Ulrich studied law at the Humboldt University of Berlin and the Complutense University of Madrid. He first joined Hogan Lovells in the course of his legal clerkship as a member of the Infrastructure, Energy, Resources and Projects practice group. Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, he was a legal trainee in the corporate/energy practice group of a leading international law-firm, where he worked on M&A deals involving offshore wind farms as well as energy related litigation.

Ulrich is a dedicated pro bono legal advisor to umtueten.org, an initiative seeking to reduce plastic waste.
