

Stephanie Tang

Head of Private Equity – Greater China
Hong Kong

Biography

Stephanie is the head of private equity in Greater China. She is a well-regarded M&A (both public and private), private equity, and capital markets lawyer with a strong track record of successfully advising Chinese companies on their outbound investments and international companies on their investments in the Asia Pacific region. She has a strong TMT sector focus.

Stephanie has experience in all manner of transactions including PIPEs, equity investments, take-private transactions, and other complex deals.

Stephanie represents private equity clients as well as various public companies listed in the U.S. and China. In recent years, Stephanie led 24 take-private transactions of U.S.-listed Chinese companies, and various cross-border M&As led by Chinese private equity funds and/or Chinese A-share listed companies.

In addition, she has represented both issuers and underwriters on NYSE and NASDAQ IPOs, private placements of equity and equity-linked securities, and Rule 144A and Regulation S offerings by China-based companies.

A sought after speaker and commentator, Stephanie has been recognized as a leading lawyer for M&A by IFLR1000 and she frequently lectures on cross-border M&A and IPOs.
