

David Bamberg

Senior Associate

Munich

Biography

David Bamberg advises national and international companies on all aspects of data protection law and cyber security law. David has worked on matters ranging from international data transfers, IT outsourcing projects, privacy policies for mobile apps, data management systems and employee monitoring.

David spent an academic year abroad at the Università di Bologna (Italy). During his traineeship David worked in a law firm which specializes in intellectual property and competition law and for the Media Authority of the Land of Saxony-Anhalt.

Representative experience

Advising an international pharmaceutical company on the implementation of data management systems.

Advising an international pharmaceutical company on the use of personal data in clinical studies.

Advising an international life science equipment manufacturer on international transfer of personal data.

Advising an international medical device manufacturer on data protection issues in relation with a mobile app services.

Advising an international semi conductor manufacturer

Phone

+49 89 290 12 0

Fax

+49 89 290 12 222

Email

david.bamberg@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
German
Italian

Practices

Copyright
Domain Names
Privacy and Cybersecurity

on data protection issues in relation with the use of decryption software.

Latest thinking and events

■ Press Releases

- Hogan Lovells advises PTC on the acquisition of ioxp

Industries

Automotive

Life Sciences and Health Care

Technology & Telecoms

Areas of focus

Consumer Protection and Privacy

Data Protection

Health Privacy and Cybersecurity

IP Rights in Transactions

IT Outsourcing

Telecommunications and Wireline

Workplace Privacy

Education and admissions

Education

Second State Exam in Law, Ministry of Justice and Equality of Saxony-Anhalt, 2014

First State Exam in Law, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg, 2011
