

Daniel Brook

Partner
London

Biography

Daniel is a patent litigator in the UK. He acts for clients such as MSD, Lilly, Amgen and BMS. Recent key cases include Actavis v Lilly (Supreme Court), Schutz v Werit (Supreme Court), and BMS v Teva (availability of interim injunctions).

He has experience with each of the major patent jurisdictions in Europe. He regularly manages cross border patent litigation for clients on their most important products and has been involved in a number of leading cases.

Daniel is ranked by Chambers UK - 'Clients commend his 'high-quality counselling' and his 'clear, well-structured' communications.', Legal 500, MIP IP Stars, IAM Patent 1000 and Who's Who Legal.

Representative experience

Acting for MSD in relation to patent challenges around its products including simvastatin, lovastatin, alendronate and raltegravir.

Acting for Lilly in relation to patent challenges around its oncology products including pemetrexed (Supreme Court) and gemcitabine.

Acting for BMS in relation to patent challenges around its HIV products, efavirenz and atazanavir.
