Hogan Lovells Litigation, Arbitration and Employment team in Dubai has announced the publication of the inaugural edition of the Guide to Dispute Resolution in the Middle East.

This 64 page publication is intended to be a first point of reference for companies and in-house counsel dealing with cross-border and domestic transactions in the Middle East. The publication highlights dispute resolution procedures and trends in the following selected Middle Eastern jurisdictions:

- Bahrain
- Egypt
- Iraq
- Jordan
- The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia
- Kuwait
- Lebanon
- Oman
- Qatar
- Syria
- The United Arab Emirates
- Yemen

For each of the above countries, the following aspects are addressed:

- An introduction to the State's Legal System and Sources of Law;
- An overview of the State's Court System;
- An overview of the recognition and enforcement of foreign Judgments in the State;
- An overview of the State's approach to arbitration;

- An overview of the State's arbitral institutions;
- An overview of the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards (both foreign and domestic) in the State;
- An overview of Investor State Arbitration in the State; and
- Other Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) options in the State.
